Euthus Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 158 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.4in. Overkill is a unique in-depth Bible study and commentary on the apostle Paul's letter to the church in Rome, focusing on chapter 5. Paul began his inspired letter by saying: he was drafted into this war by the Lord Jesus Christ. His assignment was to preach the Good News Gospel to the whole world. This is a powerful story of war and love. His letter is addressed to God's loved ones in Rome. The Gospel is The Power force of God unto Salvation. If Almighty God has to use POWER to rescue, what does that say about the power of the forces of evil Romans 5 takes us onto the battlefield of spiritual warfare to witness the power of God in action. This, first in a planned four book series on Romans 5-8, makes it easier to understand and master this difficult to interpret letter. Walker accomplishes this task by carefully following the drama as it unfolds in vivid detail. He guides us through the text while taking both panoramic and up close perspectives of the drama as the text directs. At the end the reader will have a thorough understanding of the first 5 chapters of the letter. Expect an eye opening, awe inspiring, mind renewing, faith building, life transforming, hope strengthening, account of God's love in action. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
