THE WHOLE GOSPEL FOR THE WHOLE WORLD (PAPERBACK)

Pickwick Publications, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Like most Protestant denominations, the Christian and Missionary Alliance (CMA) was founded upon ideas that shaped its vision and ethos throughout its history. Also like most denominations, over time the influence of these ideas on the movement tends to diminish. Denominations, like any organization, have to consistently revisit their original vision in order to remain vitally sustained by those things that gave it a reason for existing in the first place. This book addresses six key ideas that have shaped the Christian and Missionary Alliance throughout its history: Jesus as our savior, sanctifier, healer, and coming king, which are known as the fourfold gospel, as well as the concepts of Jesus only and world mission. These ideas are at the heart of the CMA identity. However, there has long been a sense within CMA circles that these core ideas are not always given the kind of attention that they deserve so that they can dynamically shape the movement as it faces the challenges of being the church in the twenty-first century. This volume is a resource for Alliance churches that will help them re-engage with the central tenets of Alliance theology and spirituality in a way that will ultimately inspire greater passion for the cause of Christ in the world as it is uniquely expressed through the movement known as the Christian and Missionary Alliance. I am reading this manuscript sitting a few blocks away from the grave marker for A. B. Simpson, the founder of the Christian and Missionary Alliance. I found myself wondering, If Simpson were alive today and was attending a local Alliance church, would he still recognize the original DNA of the Alliance movement within the leaders...
