

The Last Ride of Grayson s Raiders (Paperback)

By Roger G Russell

Booksurge Publishing, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In the year 1836 a gang of five-hundred pirates, killers-brutal, evil murderers--live on an island in the Mississippi that is known as the Devil s Den. The devil of the Den is John Murel with the blackest heart of them all even if his traveling disguise is that of a preacher. The killers of the Devil s Den have a favorite and lucrative crime: slave stealing. They sell the stolen slaves, telling them to run away from their new owners and back to the thieves, with the promise to take them to freedom. But the lie quickly wears thin as the thieves sell and resell them until the stolen slaves become known, hot items. Then the thieves kill them, open them up and fill them with rocks to sink them to the bottom of the big river. But their crimes are not limited to slaves or blacks-or anyone. John Murel rules the Devil s Den with iron will and quick gun, and fears only one man in the entire country: Able Grayson. Grayson is an old hero of the Battle of...
