Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Teacher s Manual Geography: To Accompany Tarr and McMurry s Series of Geographies For beginners home geography stands in sharp contrast to the geography of the world whole and of foreign countries. It is relatively so small. But a knowledge of local geography and industries furnishes a good starting-point in geographical study. It is difficult for adults to understand how much children are dependent upon things which they have seen in order to explain things which they cannot see. The observation of neighborhood facts must precede the study of things at a distance. A definite knowledge of the home surroundings, of its hills, streams, landscapes, agriculture, manufacturing, commerce, changing seasons, storms, floods, etc., is necessary as an introduction to the same topics in the world abroad. When we come to study the climate, surface, industries, products, and commerce of distant states and of foreign countries, our ability to construct correct pictures is based upon the varied ideas of similar kind that we have gathered in vivid and real form from our own home neighborhood.
