Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Doghead Cola emerged via the 1990s zine scene, a sardonic scribe of the Rave generation s -Secret Society hidden in plain sight.- Smith s Each Of Illusion compiles a hedonistic decade s worth of literary mashups, spanning Cola s slacker-incensed rants, MDMA-inspired fiction, cut-up inversions of divine nature, surrealist dream recall, and experimental explorations channeling the likes of William S. Burroughs, Brion Gysin, Gertrude Stein, and Tristan Tzara - all running at a frenetic House Music tempo. Caught somewhere between Post-Punk and Cyberpunk, between Andy Warhol and Ronald Reagan, between the Beat Hotel and Hypertext - Smith s Each Of Illusion harnesses that period s fringe culture and maps its subversive territories with stirring, riotous, and recurrently thought-provoking playfulness. Encyclopedic and epic, this compendium serves as something of a monomythic analog to the Rave Generation as Finnegans Wake did for the Lost Generation.
