At publication, Face Forward, Move Forward became a #1 Best New Release and stayed in the Best Seller ranks for weeks. Your past does not have to define your future! It's a choice. If you're running from a monster, instead of looking over your shoulder, you'll cover more ground faster if you face forward in the direction you're moving. In Face Forward, Move Forward, the monster represents anything from anger, guilt and pain to shame, betrayal and worthlessness. I learned to run away from the past, but toward what? How can I live a life 180-degrees different from what I've known, what I had beaten into me? Face Forward, Move Forward is a gut-wrenching and heart-warming story about reframing life to invoke positive outcomes. A Face...
