Turn to the brook where the honeysuckle tipping O er its vase of perfume spills it on the breeze, And the bee and humming-bird in ecstasy are sipping From the fairy-flagons of the blooming locust trees. Turn to the lane where we used to teeter-totter, Printing little foot-palms in the mellow mould--Laughing at the lazy cattle wading in the water Where the ripples dimple round the buttercups of gold. Where the dusky turtle lies basking on the gravel Of the sunny sand-bar in the middle tide, And the ghostly dragonfly pauses in his travel To rest like a blossom where the water-lily died. Heigh-ho! Babyhood! Tell me where you linger! Let s toddle home again, for we have gone astray; Take this eager hand of mine and lead me by the finger Back to the lotus-lands of the far-away! 94 JOHN...
