Tell your story through guided journal prompts. 15 Journal Prompts to help you write your memories Pages to journal 7 Years of Autumn and Thanksgiving memories A recipe section to write your family recipes Quotes and Scriptures for your prayer and meditation time Can you remember the funny event from last Thanksgiving that kept folks laughing for hours Do you remember that yummy new recipe you made and everyone requested you to make it this year Do you have some childhood memories of Autumn and Thanksgiving you want to make sure your future generations know From the author. . . My holiday memories journals are my prized possessions. They helped me to record my childhood holiday memories. Now, I use them to help me record thoughts and memories through the years. My holiday journal is a legacy for future generations. I envision your journal being used in many ways: As your personal journal through the Thanksgiving Holidays. As an old fashioned scrapbook to hold photos and other keepsakes. As a place for other family members to record their thoughts. When the Thanksgiving Holiday is over each season, you will have not only your personal memorial but a keepsake for the entire family. Express your individuality. In this journal you wont find lots of images, because every person is different. White space is begging for you to doodle, draw, color, sticker and have fun with your journal. This is an interactive journal. Precious memories. When you close the book for the season, it may be messy. You may have wrinkled pages. You may have some stray glue spots or a spot of cake batter on the pages. Each of those imperfections are what will make...
