Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Edward Raymond Turner of the University of Michigan: Apostle and Apologist of Reaction Ireland has for centuries been subjected to systematic misrepresentation of her history and her people by wily English propagandists. The freedom-loving people of other lands who, if they knew the truth, would sympathize with the Irish nation, have been carefully blinded by a veil of misinformation designed to create hostility to the Irish. This English propaganda has been particularly active in the United States in the past, and is seemingly at its height here today. Lord Northcliffe, the English editor and publisher, whose wealth and initiative make him especially powerful, is particularly active in the work of deluging America with English propaganda. He realizes that Americans of Irish blood have awakened America to the peril which confronts it in the English attempt to break down our century-long traditions and to make the United States an ally of England. It is in a desperate effort to stay this rising tide of popular opinion that England is today doing her best to discredit the Irish people and American citizens of Irish blood. England hopes, by painting a black picture of Irish life, to prompt American lovers of liberty to turn their eyes away. The methods of Lord Northcliffe's propaganda machine are clearly outlined in his own paper, the London Times, in its issue of the 4th of July, 1919, as follows: Efficient propaganda, carried out by those trained in the arts of creating public good-will and of swaying public opinion towards a definite purpose. is now needed, urgently needed. To make a beginning. Efficiently organized propaganda should mobilize the press, the church, the...
