Select Books Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, No Guts, No Story: A Tale of Courage & Success from the Heartland, Barbara Pitcock, This book offers the quintessential American success story in the form of an inspirational memoir. Full of emotion and life lessons that emphasise the power of perseverance and faith over the fear and doubt that pervades modern life, this story of personal and professional growth will entertain and inspire all who read it. Barb tells the story of how she and husband Dave rose from humble beginnings in small town Kansas to find their fortune in the competitive world of home-based network marketing. At every step they were able to turn their pitfalls and mistakes into valuable lessons, using their faith in God and their fellow man to look past momentary stumbles to the future they had dreamed of, their courage and determination ultimately leading to national recognition for these "Kids from the Heartland". Their story gives a healing perspective on life's adversities and tragedies, and offers a blueprint for personal fulfilment. Barb's story underscores the possibilities for each of us to find our dreams and share our triumphs.
