Welcome to Bloody Difficult Britain: A Self-Help Guide to Surviving the UK's Identity Crisis, Divorce From the EU, and Westminster's Total Political Breakdown (Paperback)

By Steven S. Stevens

PAVILION BOOKS, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. We have never had it so bloody difficult! The pound crashing at every turn, austerity measures bringing the NHS and the education system to its knees? Hard Brexit, soft Brexit, fried Brexit on toast? Crazy coalitions and divisive devolution. What next - a plague of locusts? Unpack your political troubles from your old kit bag with the help of this mindful guide to surviving in these tumultuous times. Learn to embrace new relationships and say goodbye to old alliances, be strong and stable as you navigate the difficult political terrain. And remember to smile, smile, smile (even if your face is aching and you want to move to New Zealand). From the author/illustrator team that brought you The Brexshit Book and What the Trump?!, Bloody Difficult Britain will refresh the parts other political satire books cannot reach. Introducing a whole new cast of characters to help us tiptoe through the political minefield: Theresa Meh: Like Theresa, take a more carefree approach to serious issues such as a crumbling NHS and a nation sick of cuts and austerity. Jeremy H. Corbyn: Have belief! Crucified by the media...
