AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 160 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Terror stalks our land . . . thousands without delay divorce life . . . an undomesticated beast is on the loose, targeting the humans heart . . . One strike, death immediately arrives on the scene. . . . Airplanes, unjustifiably fallout of the sky . . . burying hundreds beneath the deep blue seas of non-forgetfulness, Cant you read the HAND WRITING ON THE WALL . . . Earthquakes, floods, pestilence, teaspoons of white powdered substance shut down gigantic governmental facilities. For this cause, many souls are flushed on the other side of life. Standing at the base of New Yorks memorial tombstone days preceding 9-11, I stared at the evening sky. A message scratched desperately across the dusty blue settling skies. These fortuitous words were literally defacing the deep blue, like a great cloud dispersing its substance following its warnings. Putting aside all the cares of this life into the impassioned summer afternoon breeze of the Big Apple, I was seafaring breathtakingly beyond the Hudson River . . . living the life of leisure . . . Suddenly an invading message raced conspicuously across the dusty blue settling skies . . . instantaneously freezing the emotions of all that beheld . . . Hes trying to get someones undivided attention. Well, He did. HAND WRITING ON THE FALLENWALL . . . captured my attention. Now we in America have been living under some serious warnings lately. It seems as though every day the news media dispenses to us another set of warnings and how we might somehow find a path of safety in a terrorist-filled environment. We as individuals, we as a nation have been put on the highest alert, were told, because there...
