Phyllis Titus grew up hearing the story of a grandfather she d never met who booked passage on the Titanic and missed its departure by seven minutes. She d always wondered how this happened, and what could possibly have kept him from boarding the ship. It was not until 1997, while attending the Memphis opening of Titanic-The Exhibition, that her questions were finally answered. That s when she learned about the purpose for her grandfather s European trip, the mysterious woman he met while travelling across the Atlantic, their planned rendezvous at the Southampton Dock before returning to the States on Titanic s maiden voyage, and the reason why he never made it aboard. In the years since then, Mrs. Titus has shared a condensed version of this story with countless people, including strangers who ask her to explain the meaning of the 7MINSL8 message on her license plates.
