Unquestionably, this is actually the very best job by any publisher. It really is basic but unexpected situations within the 50 % from the book. I discovered this book from my dad and i advised this publication to discover.

TEN STORIES FROM 100 IN 1: BETWEEN THE ROOMS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Ten Stories From 100 in 1 is my first book. The stories look at life and relationships. Examples include a relationship which can be like a soda machine that refuses to give you what you want or your money back. It can frustrate to the point you forget why you came. And, some people go through relationships like television channels. They constantly change channels. Zoroaster said that we could never know God, but we could fathom the characteristics of God through the intellect. Paul Ricoeur said that truth could only be found in play, and Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche said that truth is illusion which we chose to forget is an illusion. For me, life is the three statements. Through intellectual play we create truths that are illusions which we forget are illusions. I marvel at the universe and I am amazed by the brilliance of man. Yet that same universe can seem cruel, and the same person that seems to be genius can be a total idiot outside of a particular discipline. Lovis Corinth had a stroke and his work became distorted from brain damage. The distorted work was seen as genius. Was he genius or did society create the genius? Facts are based on some level of belief. In grammar school I came across the paradox of the arrow. Mathematically the arrow can never hit the target. Even the logical and concrete are flawed. Two things are important to me, relationships and creativity. Relationships being the most important and gives meaning to my life. The second being creativity, which is what keeps me semi-sane. I think I know myself, but do I? How many times have I asked myself...
