

Its Good Weather for Fudge: Conversing With Carson McCullers

By Sue Brannan Walker

NewSouth Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 80 pages. In Its Good Weather for Fudge: Conversing with Carson McCullers, Sue Brannan Walker pays poetic tribute to Carson McCullers on the 100th anniversary of her birth. Walker offers a biographical portrait of the famous writer in a long-form poem rich in allusions to her published body of work. In Fudge, Walker imagines a conversation with McCullers as they share memories of two women growing up in the Deep South, McCullers in Georgia, Walker in Alabama. The past becomes the present in this poem that ranges from love and war, sickness and health, and fudge and friendship. McCullers biographer Virginia Carr says, Reading Sue Walker's book is an intense and touching revisiting of each of McCullers's books. Carlos Dews, former director of The Carson McCullers Center, praises Walker's deep poetic understanding of McCullers's work, and adds, Walker's book is a must-read for anyone interested in McCullers. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
