Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . You have no idea what it s like to be a Mistake, according to Kelly Greatfist. She s lived her whole life knowing she was the accident baby who could never live up to her siblings fame and fortune. Then, to avoid punishment after a terrible accident in chemistry class, she moves from New York to a deeply Christian southern town, and meets Jordan Martin, Cody Phillips, and Addison Adams: all conceived under a variety of circumstances, all nonetheless Mistakes. They encounter a new English teacher in their high school, eccentric Ms. Brightly. Kelly struggles to find herself while dealing with an uncomfortable home life and new ideologies being taught at school, from a positive encouragement towards kindness and a nonjudgmental attitude to the strict negative pressures on dress code, especially towards the girls. Kelly, Jordan, Cody, and Addison embark on a life-changing journey to Washington, DC to participate in the March for Life, where a terrible secret unveiled about Kelly s past may destabilize all they have worked for.her mental struggle knowing that her parents attempted to abort her and she survived anyway. Mistakes is a captivating story that will have the readers engaged from the first sentence. The plot and topics covered are deep and breaking new ground as riveting questions of modern time are brought to light. The entertaining characters: cynical Kelly, timid Addison, flirtatious Jordan, and laid-back Cody all take their turn telling what really happened through their perspective. Even though the foursome is constantly confronted with a variety of difficulties, comical characters, such as Jordan s oblivious stepfather, Hubert, break the tension. Throughout their journey, they discover each other and find their own self-worth,...
