

Best Short Stories of Katherine Mansfield (Paperback)

By Katherine Mansfield

Dover Publications Inc., United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. An artist who excelled at the expression of subtle details and concentrated emotion, Katherine Mansfield ranks among the twentieth century s greatest short story writers. Her elegant, ironic tales reflect her own bohemian lifestyle, which involved tempestuous relationships with Bertrand Russell and Virginia Woolf. This collection of a dozen of Mansfield s finest works features compelling tales of fraught relationships and shattering revelations, all recounted in an intensely visual and impressionistic style. These stories range from throughout Mansfield s brief but prolific career. They include Prelude, a reminiscence of the author s New Zealand girlhood; Bliss, involving a young mother s disillusionment; Je Ne Parle Pas Francais, concerning a romantic young woman s betrayal; and The Garden Party, a contrast of snobbery and social responsibility.
