SILVER MEDAL in the Fiction/SciFi Fantasy Category in the 2017 Florida Authors and Publishers Association Presidents Book Awards. The Wisdom and Valor Treasury is a collection of epic fantasy and romance stories set in medieval-like world. Generations have passed since the flourishing of the Kingdom of Kimbria under its first Golden Age, when King Ansgar and then his daughter Queen Keridwen I ruled with integrity, justice, and benevolence. Corruption is now rampant in all levels of society and the common people suffer under poor governance while the Royal Council keeps the throne empty so it may continue as Regent and its members may line their own pockets with bribes and the diversion of tax monies from the Royal Treasury for their personal use. Finally, the people cry out for a new monarch. The Council elects the Lady Keridwen, the young Duchess of Ansgar, as Queen and orders her to marry a fearsome mercenary warlord. Known as Leofric Longsword after the unique, curved Helvellyn sword that he wields with the skill of master, he fetches Keridwen from the remote convent where she s lived for 20 years since she was orphaned as a toddler, but he takes her to his distant castle instead, not to the Palace so she can take the throne. The Royal Council, and in particular its evil genius Lord Gethin, has no intention that she will ever rule. When Leofric falls in love with the young duchess, he must choose between his loyalty to his mercenary contract and his love for his wife. What ensues is a heroic struggle against greed, evil, and conspiracy, with the lives and freedom of the Kimbrian people hanging in the balance. There...
