Death or Divine Intervention (Paperback)

By Pamela S Mezyk

Xulon Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Dear Pam, Thank you for sharing this heartfelt journey with me! I was touched by your words of excruciating pain-words of love and sorrow, but now hope. Barb Zerby B.A. in psychology and special education, hospice volunteer coordinator When life suddenly throws you a curve ball that knocks your socks off, how do you regain your footing? When the curve ball is the sudden death of a loved one, the devastating impact leaves a path of destruction that threatens your very survival. The destruction starts with your heart and continues to tear apart your body with serious risks of damage to your emotional, spiritual and physical well-being. Pam Mezyk is a nurse who has spent the better part of her thirty-seven-year nursing career working with death and dying. When her husband died suddenly while traveling in Israel it was like being a virgin to grief, and it took on a whole new meaning. Death or Divine Intervention: A spiritual journey through love, loss and grief explores raw emotions and is open and honest about the author's struggles with recovery. The readers will find...
