I had four big brothers and three sisters. In the winter when the day s work was done, all of us gathered before the pine-log fire that served as a light. Each one had to pick his or her shoe full of cotton seed before he could go to bed. Out of the cotton so separated from its seeds the clothes of the fam ily were made. Mother carded and spun the cotton into thread which she wove into cloth. Then she made the cloth into clothes - all with her fingers.
