Excerpt from The Story of the Greatest Nations With One Thousand of the World's Famous Events Portrayed in Word and Picture, Vol. 8 The immediate cause of dispute was Korea, sovereignty over which was claimed by both the contestants. The main battle of the war was thus fought on Korean ground, outside the city of Ping Yang. This the Chinese had strongly fortified. Its walls were high and it was surrounded by a chain of forts, chief of them being the Fort Botandai, shown in our picture as towering on a hilltop above the other forts. The Japanese attacked these defences like madmen, storming one fort after another, until finally Botandai itself was carried by assault. Then the resolute assailants attacked the city. A band of heroes clambered up the walls in face of a murderous fire, drove back the defenders, leaped down inside, and broke open the main gate for their comrades. Less than ten men of this scaling party were still alive -when the gate opened. After that the Chinese ?ed. This battle established unmistakably the military supremacy of the...
