Excerpt: .The essayist expressed his opinions in vigorous terms, and was not altogether in favour of the position taken now-a-days by women in the commercial world. The enthusiasm in connection with the Idle Association shows no sign of abatement, and recent papers on The Literary Phonographer and The Art of Happiness have been greatly appreciated. With the object of increasing the membership the experiment is being tried of devoting the first half-hour of each meeting entirely to elementary members, and so far the results have been very satisfactory. An evercirculator is also doing much to increase the interest taken in the work of the Association. We are glad to learn that Mr. Southern, the energetic secretary of the Bolton Association has recovered from his recent severe indisposition. Enthusiastic Secretaries can ill be spared during the busy season, and we are sure Mr. Southern s fellow members very cordially welcome him back to work. A new Association has just seen the light at Walthamstow, and the Shorthand Writer has brought the existence of the Federation before the notice of the officials. We hope the result of the introduction will be affiliation. The new venture has most encouraging prospects, and all those interested in its welfare, and desiring to join should communicate with Mr. W. H. Sizer, of 14, Folkestone Road, Walthamstow. The meetings are held at the Monoux Grammar School in High Street. We have received from New South Wales a very interesting account of the...
