Excerpt: . . . 11 rarely. The review process is a rigorous evaluation of the States system and al-lows the review team to identify problems, investigate the causes, and suggest solutions during the review. Statewide Automated Child Welfare Information System (SACWIS) - Through these reviews we assess and inspect the planning, design, and operation of SACWIS systems to determine how such systems meet the requirements im-posed in the law, regulations, guidelines, and in the States unique business plan. ACF evaluates all mandatory functional components (e. g. intake, screen-ing, assessment, and investigations) and all the optional components the State elected to include in the system design (e. g. court processing and contract moni-toring). The SACWIS can function as a case management system that serves as the electronic case file for children and families served by the States child welfare programs. Twenty-nine States now have operational systems that are comprehensive and capable of supporting both improved case management and required data reporting. Child and Family Services Review - The...
