SIMON SCHUSTER, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. If Singletree s only florist didn t deliver her posies half-drunk, I might still be married to that floor-licking, scum-sucking, receptionist-nailing hack-accountant, Mike Terwilliger. Lacey Terwilliger s shock and humiliation over her husband s philandering prompt her to add some bonus material to Mike s company newsletter: stunning Technicolor descriptions of the special brand of administrative support his receptionist gives him. The detailed mass e-mail to Mike s family, friends, and clients blows up in her face, and before one can say instant urban legend, Lacey has become the pariah of her small Kentucky town, a media punch line, and the defendant in Mike s defamation lawsuit. Her seemingly perfect life up in flames, Lacey retreats to her family s lakeside cabin, only to encounter an aggravating neighbor named Monroe. A hunky crime novelist with a low tolerance for drama, Monroe is not thrilled about a newly divorced woman moving in next door. But with time, beer, and a screen door to the nose, a cautious friendship develops into something infinitely more satisfying. Lacey has to make a decision about her long-term living arrangements, though. Should she take a job writing caustic divorce newsletters for paying clients, or move on with her own life, pursuing more literary aspirations? Can she find happiness with a man who tells her what he thinks and not what she wants to hear? And will she ever be able to resist saying one . . . last . . . thing?.
