Excerpt: . . . belts and breast and shoulder straps, with a big, brightly polished brass plate on the strap, and their leather caps and tall and gay red and white plumes, made a truly handsome appearance when on parade, and we can imagine that they did appear very handsome. Of course, none but those who witnessed the grand spectacle of that day could realize its imposing character, but then--our readers must imagine what it was like to the best of their knowledge and ability. After arriving at the grove the following: order of exercism, intermingled with the soulstirring music of the band, was observed: Prayer, by the Rev. Mr. Riddle. Declaration of Independence read by Joseph Parsons. Hymn by the Sabbath School Children. Oration by Henry Johnson, Esq. Refreshments on True Temperance Principles. Reading of Thirteen sentiments, each sentiment followed by Music by the Band. Volunteer...

Reviews

This pdf is definitely worth getting. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
