Egypt Styles is a young African American woman who is confused about love. After being hurt, abused, and lied to Egypt who is also known in her city as Money begins to see the love that she thought existed in her heart was better to quickly be replaced with the root of all evil itself. Money. Although with a genuine heart and confident mind as well as beauty being a gift to her, Money just wants to be a normal, wealthy successful woman that has it all in place. With the love of her life and an offer for a photoshoot nothing can come between Money and her dreams about true love being real . Trust and loyalty plays a big part in who Money seems to be the right fit for her love. When Money learns that love and lies are competing against each other, she goes on a rampage to get both revenge and answers even if it brings the ones close to her to their death.
