Remember that the condition of a young bride is often a very solitary one; and that for your sake she has left her parent/s roof, and the companionship of her brothers and sisters. If you are a professional man, your wife may have to live in the neighborhood of a large city, where she scarcely knows any one, and without those agreeable domestic occupations, or young associates, among whom she had grown up. Her garden and poultry-yard are hers no longer, and the day passes without the light of any smile but yours. You go. off, most probably after breakfast, to your business or profession, and do not return till a late dinner; perhaps even not then, if you are much occupied, or have to keep up professional connections. It seems unmanly, certainly most unkind, to let your young wife go to church on Sunday without you, for the common-place satisfaction of lounging at home. A BREACH or Donnsrre Erronnrrs. To act in this manner is certainly a breach of domestic etiquette. Sunday is the only day in which you can enable her to forget her father s house, and the pleasant associations of her girlhood days--in which you can pay her those attentions which prevent all painful comparisons as regards the past. Sunday is the day of rest, wisely and mercifully appointed to loose the bonds by which men are held to the world; let it...
