

Reflective Practice for Teaching in Lifelong Learning: n/a (Paperback)

By Ian Rushton, Martin Suter

OPEN UNIVERSITY PRESS, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The authors set out to produce a book that would demystify reflective practice and they have succeeded!!! The book is rich in practical wisdom, concisely expressed, and will enable both experienced teachers and new entrants to use reflective practice to improve and develop teaching and learning in a complex and diverse lifelong learning sector. Dr David Holloway, University of Portsmouth, UK. This book speaks with academic authority and the experience and understanding of practitioners. The authors draw teachers into their world of everyday reflective practice that is much more than a requirement from trainee teachers, but rather is at the heart of all teachers practice. The authors highlight its value for improving teaching and learning and coping with ongoing change, whilst recognising honestly the difficulties in making time to reflect deeply and critically and the questions raised about the worth of reflective practice in an increasingly regulated sector. Rich examples bring the text to life, exemplify concepts and demonstrate practical applications. Mary Samuels, Oxford Brookes University, UK. This book has a heartening and optimistic message at its centre: reflective practice can help us as teachers...
