Upon the 19th of October last, a number of persons { be* rtween 20 and 30) made an attack upon three Banks situate an the town of St. Albans, in the State of Vermont, one of the United States of America, and stole therefrom, in money and securities, upwards of $200,000. After the perpetration of the robbery, the persons engaged in it fired upon several citizens, killing one, and wounding another almost iatally. They .then .fled to Canada, and u, pon its having been made known to the Government ihere that these outrages had been committed, and that tbe perpetrators of them .sought jefuge in Canada, prompt and efficient measures were ordered to be taken for ihe apprehension of the offenders. The .result was, that 43 of the gang were arrested within a few hours after the commission of;the crimes .charged against .them. Immediately afterwards, their extradition was demanded by the United States Government; but as this demand could not be complied with without the .observance of the stipulations of the treaty for the surrender -of persons so accused, an investigation into the criminality of the acts with which they were charged, was.commenced before Chas. Jos. Coursol, Esq., Judge of the Sessions of the Peace. During the progress of this investigation it was proved that $90,000 were found in the possession of the pri -soners, which were fully identified as a part of the larger sum stolen from the...
