Then another. Ninety-sevvun, ninety-eight, she counted aloud, her little pointed face gravely intent. She waited the briefest possible space before she took ninety-nine. It was getting very close to the Time now. At the hundred an oneth, Rebecca Mary whispered. It s almost it. Her breath came quicker under her tight little dress. Between her thin, light eyebrows a crease deepened anxiously. Ninety - n-i-n-e, she counted, one hun-der-ed - it was so very close now! The next stitch would be the hundred and oneth. Rebecca Mary s face suddenly grew quite white. I ll wait a m-minute, she decided; I m just a little scared. When you ve been lookin head to the hundred and oneth so LONG and you get the very next door to it, it scares you a little. I ll wait until - oh, until Thomas Jefferson crows, before I sew the hundred and oneth.
