Whether Jones is holding forth on concepts such as The Pop Oracle, A Balanced Diet of Cults, Honor Among Men, or introducing readers to the artifact that gives the book its name, he does so with a keen wit and a provocateur s knack for raising difficult issues; beginning conversations that will continue long after you have left its pages. At the heart of his story is Jones quest for justice and awesomeness in the face of what he calls the boring haters. It s a personal tale of a man, a magickal item, and a small town on the banks of a vortex.
