Excerpt from Foreign Agriculture Circular: June 9, 1952; Flm-5-52 Canada was already faced with a growing surplus of pork in February when the outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease in Saskatchewan eliminated the United States market. In the confusion resulting from embargoes on livestock and meat shipments placed by the Federal, provincial, and the United States governments, packing house storage facilities for fresh and frozen meats became jammed beyond capacity. Pork was and still is the main problem. The government urged farmers to withhold market hogs to heavier weights and for a short time, changed the grade premiums accordingly. This soon began to compound the total weight marketed and the order was rescinded. A Federal floor price for pork was instituted based on hogs selling for per M. At Toronto. To alleviate the acute shortage of storage space for fresh meat, the Agricultural Prices Support Board was authorized to buy canned pork. Government contracts to date for this spam-type product have amounted to 35 million pounds. The government has also purchased to date this year 31 million pounds of the five basic cuts and about...
