Matliek, who was killed in their mine. As there was a misunderstanding in the time of the trains, I did not arrive until the body was on the way to West Virginia. I examined the place of the accident in the mine, and from what I could see and learn from some practical miners, the accident was due to his own carelessness in not keeping the roof sufficiently propped. He had some nineteen extra posts at hand had he taken time to put them up. JOHN D. Sruacnon, Oroner. STATE or PENNSYLVANIA, , 1 S5 Fayette county.) An inquisition indented and taken at Jimtown, in the county of Fayette, this 27th day of January, A. D. 1883, before me, J. K. McDonald, a justice of the peace in and for said county upon view of the dead body of Jacob Hetzell, then...
