Wretlind is known for writing outside the box, whatever that box happens to be. In this collection of fourteen short stories, his talent for the bizarre, the horrific, and even the soft and quiet is put on display for you to analyze. Some of these stories have been published in magazines like The Horror Express, All Hallows, Horror Carousel and the Bare Bones anthology series, while others have never been published before. Covering ground from 1991 until 2006, each story is forwarded by Benjamin s own short take on why or how it was written. If you re looking for a literary smorgasbord, this collection is right for you. Included in the print edition is Mighty Chief Chappose Picks Berries, one of the novellas which make up Sketches from the Spanish Mustang.
