Xulon Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . William Nieves explores the variety of experiences he and his wife have shared through deepening their relationship with Christ in his book, A Glimpse of Judgment. He namely provides details of his fascinating spiritual growth from miracle events leading to Jesus saving his soul. What makes this book absorbing is his honesty in expressing his growth and shortcomings, which we can all connect with, as well as his spiritual maturity from falling back in sin learned along the way to spiritual freedom. The powerful transformation from dabbling and using drugs brings him closer to Jesus, as his wife Jacqueline helps him grow closer to God. What is refreshing is Nieves awareness of good and evil through his personal journey, as well as his realization that God has never forsaken him. This will inspire you to forge an awareness of the healing power of transformation, the practice of forgiveness and Gods devotion to faithfulness. Included are poems, revealing the author s connection and servitude to the Lord, bringing praise to His holy name.
