Excerpt from Oversight of Regulatory Review Activities of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs: Hearing Before the Subcommittee on Financial Management and Accountability of the Committee on Governmental Affairs, United States Senate, One Hundred Fourth Congress, Second Session; September 25, 1996 Chairman thompson. The hearing will come to order, this hearing of the Committee on Governmental Affairs, Subcommittee on Financial Management and Accountability. We are meeting today to see how we are going to meet the challenge of having an effective regulatory scheme without overburdening the American people. Specifically, we are going to review the regulatory activities of the Administration's Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs in implementing Executive Order 12866. The Subcommittee also will look at some of the promises made in the National Performance Review to reduce the number of pages of regulations found in the Code of Federal Regulations.
