W. S. Harney, U. S. Army, and First Lt. Geo; Ihrie, Late U. S. Army: With the U. S. War Department, and Subsequent Personal Correspondence Regularity of transmission was, in this flagrant case, purposely sacrificed by me to irregularity, for the purpose of stopping further abuse of authority. I only regret I did not, at the time, irregularly report to the Commander-in-Chief, Harney's use of United States transportation, in furtherance of his scheme of peculation. George Ihrie, Late United States Army. Headquarters, Department of Oregon, Fort Vancouver, W. T., December 9, 1859. Colonel: I have the honor to return Colonel Merchant's communication and enclosure, with the following explanation, in connexion with the enclosed copies of letters from these headquarters to the commander of Fort Vancouver, dated July 23, and August 4, 1859. It is proper on this occasion to call the attention of the War Department to the three officers whose reports Colonel Merchant considers irregular. First Lieutenant George Ihrie, who temporarily commanded B and D companies, has...
