Excerpt: . . . 7 Now as theregare many of you here who were not present at our former meetings, I think it proper for your information to give a short account of what passed between your nephews the Delawares, and us. V 3. About three years ago, your brethren theEnglish, living on the borders, were struck of a sudden; many killed, and others carried, away. captive. We knew not by whom, but sent messengers up the Susquehannah as far as the SixNations, to inquire from whence the blow came, and for what reason. On the return of these messengers, we were informed, that the Delawares and Shawanese were the aggressors. Some time after this discovery, a cessation of hostilities was brought about; Teedyuscung came down to our council fire, told 1 us the cause of the Warwas the proprietaries taking from him by fraud the ground on which we now stand; and that the inducement-to begin it, was from the persuasion of the false-hearted French king. At last all blood was wiped away; and Teedyuscung then declared to us, that he acted in behalf of ten nations, and promised to restore to us all our fellow-subjects that had been carried away prisoners. I desire therefore to know the true reason, why our flesh and blood who are in captivity are withheld from us, and what is become of those belts we gave him to confirm the peace, and that promise; for till that promise is complied with...
