Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Manual and Course of Study, Elementary Schools It is not a painted rag; it is a whole national history. - Beecher. The St. Nicholas flag will suggest many interesting exercises. If possible a large flag should be procured; at least place the outlines of one upon the blackboard, coloring while studying. With primary pupils give a few leading facts connected with the history of the colony represented by the first stripe and, when they can state them, color the stripe with crayon; then take the second, continuing until pupils can give the facts of all the colonies represented by the stripes. A flag might also be made upon heavy cardboard or pasteboard and the stripes cut out. Then have a flag-building exercise, letting each pupil take a stripe, tell what he can concerning the colony, and place it in its proper order. Whatever method is used, study the work in connection with a United States map. Use also pictures, history stories, patriotic poems and songs. Many incidents, catch-words, and associated facts will help pupils to...
