What does it mean to be a believer in Christ? What do Christians actually believe? These are good questions. Questions that most Christians are no longer able to answer. For Christianity has (for the most part) gone away from the truths it held so dear and cherished so much in the past. The Christian religion has separated from the faith of Jesus and has instead elected to be more of a social club and a place of singing and dancing, where you try to feel the spirit by satisfying your own outer need of feeling good than answering to the more pressing need that the heart truly longs for a relationship with the Creator. We as Christians have so many questions that we long to have answers to. Questions our forefathers asked and answered through the Scriptures that we have forgotten. Questions such as: Is there an eternity of burning hell? (Page 31) Is there a soul and is it immortal? (Page 30) How can I be saved who...
