Toddlers, Teens, Tantrums and Textbooks: Challenging Conventional Education with a Creative, Child-Centred Education (Paperback)

By Manuela Shenton

Manuela Shenton, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Manuela shares with you her wisdom on everything from the basics of home education to trending topics like slow parenting and unschooling. Manuela is no stranger to the trials and tribulations of home education. In the process of educating all nine of her children, from kindergarten to university, she has learned a thing or two. In her new book, Toddlers, Teens, Tantrums and Textbooks, Manuela guides you toward success with timely topics that affect not just home-educating parents, but everyone who wants to see their children grow to be independent, creative, thoughtful, and intelligent adults. One of Manuela's favourite topics is slow parenting -- taking a step back and letting children learn and grow at their own pace. Enrolling children in dozens of activities and pushing them to succeed has become the norm, but all too often, it seems to backfire. Manuela admits to being a helicopter parent in the past, but through many years of parenting, she realised it doesn't do children any favours to be micro-managed. She believes in the importance of fostering independence and allowing children...
