Excerpt: . . . 11 know, because I spoke to President Clinton about this just 2 days ago, that he wishes to deal with this problem head-on. I can report to you today that the Security Council, having bro-ken new ground by dealing with a health issue for the first time in its history, intends to keep it up. The Economic and Social Coun-cil will be having meetings on it. We are going to be meeting with businessmen in New York. Were working very closely with the White House. This was not a gimmick or a piece of theater; it was the beginning of an intensification of an issue which we cannot leave alone. Id now like to turn to the Congo, Mr. Chairman, because we believe, as you know, that the time has come to take the next steps in the search to bring peace to that explosive area. You...
