The Adventures of Strauss and Henry are about the loving relationship between two unusual friends: Strauss the great big, big mouse and Henry the little tiny, tiny pig. This book leads the young child through six adventures between the two companions. The book is intended to be enjoyed by parents as they read to their young child and by the child as their minds imagine the two friends joining together in their antics and fun. The child has further joy by coloring the characters and scenery inside the book. The cover is designed to also be colored. Join with Strauss and Henry as they solve the problem of their great difference in leg lengths when they walk together on fine Sunday mornings. Learn how Henry helps to sooth his friend s aches and pains gained through too much exercising. Laugh with Strauss as he helps his tiny, tiny friend enjoy swimming in Strauss s giant pool. There are the antics while skiing. Henry has a dream about growing to giant size. Strauss tries his hand at...
