V L Media Solutions, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The current book Perspectives and Perceptions on Academic Writing and Citations is consisted of three parts. All the three parts are distinct in their nature and type of chapters included therein. The first part involves a brief introduction about academic writing and citations and various perspectives and perceptions regarding this. The author introduces about academic writing and tries to throw light upon the main features which makes it different from simple and layman s writing. This includes not only what, why and how of academic writing but also what is the possible international code of conduct and ethics while creating an academic writing. The chapter is highly enriched to create a sense of academic writing and paves the way for creating it logically and rationally. The author then gives an eagle s eye on perspectives and perceptions about academic writing by people associated with various different sorts of organizations. These academicians belong to Commonwealth, NCERT, Open University, Central University and Private University. The second part consists of the chapters by various academicians that witness their perspectives and perceptions about academic writing and citations. There are chapters which are written by academics with long teaching, learning and writing experience belonging to different sectors of academic field. When going through these chapters, readers will have a glance of what academics from the country think about academic writing and citations and will get further insight about what is and what should be there pertaining to this field. The third part of this book shares an empirical study especially meant for the current assignment. The chapter shares an opinionnaire, which was developed on academic writing and citations. It was sent to those who are...
