Have you anything special to do to-night, Ned? asked Tom Swift, the well-known inventor, as he paused in front of his chum s window, in the Shopton National Bank. No, nothing in particular, replied the bank clerk, as he stacked up some bundles of bills. Why do you ask? I wanted you to come over to the house for a while. Going to have a surprise party, or something like that? No, only I ve got something I d like to show you. A new invention? Well, not exactly new. You ve seen it before, but not since I ve improved it. I m speaking of my new electric rifle. I ve got it ready to try, now, and I d like to see what you think of it. There s a rifle range over at the house, and we can practice some shooting, if you haven t anything else to do. I haven t, and I ll be glad to come. What are you doing in the bank, anyhow; putting away more of your wealth, Tom? Yes, I just made a little deposit. It s some money I got from the government for the patents on my sky racer, and I m salting it down here until Dad and I can think of a better investment. Good idea. Bring us all the money you can, and the bank clerk, who held a small amount of stock in the financial institution, laughed, his chum joining in with him.
