Excerpt from Ritual of the Star-Spangled Banner Association of the United States of America: Together With Charter, Constitution, by-Laws and List of Charter Members This Ritual has been prepared by the Association as a helpful assist ant in the great work that is undertaken. It is expected to serve as a basis upon which the constituent units of the organization can predicate their activities. The power of the movement, however, will be dependent entirely upon the force and earnestness of the personal equation. The Ritual will not do it all. If members affiliate with this Association, and do so under a sincere desire to render public service by working earnestly in the direction of an elevated American life, they will not satisfy themselves with a mere perfunctory enrollment. Each member will feel that he or she has assumed an important practical responsibility. Under the consciousness of that responsibility, each will, or, at least, each should, be an active evangelist in behalf of the Association, working on the theory that the multiplication of members will mean a multiplication of the units of in uence. Think of the national patriotic possibilities behind an organization like this, if each member becomes an in uence for good, and if each member becomes an ardent canvasser in the work of adding to the Association more members of like character! The possibilities stand out inspiringly; they invite zealous effort on the part of everyone. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
