If there will be a search for the best dogging in Philippine politics, Mayor Pengson can be the best contender. No wonder his son Louie can hardly swallow it. When placed side by side, Louie and his father's outlook in life best fits a juxtaposition of ironies. The son inherited the activist-gene of his father; the latter shed it off in exchange for the new found glories of a traditional politician. It seems that Louie and his American girlfriend, Pam Snorton, will pay for the sins of the old man later. This is the time after Ferdinand Marcos had martial law as his wisest option in then chaotic Philippines his tool also in his try to perpetuate his power. This is when he said it was the way of attaining his political line this nation can be great again. The Nixon White House seem to be much aware of it; making its fight with the communists a lot easier, while its interests were focused on 2 billion dollar investments and of course, the two US Military Bases in Clark,...
