Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A SYNOPSIS OF ESTAMBAI ESTAMBAI is an autobiography of a simple town girl nick-named Estambai as a child. The book depicts the author's early years at school, her privilege of a pleasurable school life except for some harassment and teasing that she had to endure from other youths in her neighbourhood. The author gives some anecdotes of incidents and people that impacted her life as a growing child. These include the concept of modern day child labour in Chapter Two which she projects in a positive light. In Chapter Nine, the author's delightful experiences were interrupted by her admission into a Christian Secondary School, in Owo, Nigeria. In the boarding school, she encountered a more regimented but properly-planned academic and social life. There were specific schedules and rules for different aspects of life in the boarding...
