New Generation Publishing, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What happened to the box turtle? Did the sickly pig ever get well? Grandma Geraldine goes down memory lane and conjures up a whole new world of adventure and fun, a world of spooky Halloween and spunky ponies, of crunchy cookies and sticky maple syrup. A grandma s gift of love to all the wonderful children of the world. Geraldine has been married for forty-seven years to David Goon, who ran his own business for forty-five years. She provided the office support for his business, taught home economics in a private school, and managed a school kitchen. She has served in her church by teaching children and youths. Along with five children of her own, she cared for twelve foster children. She currently has ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild. She also provides care for her ninety-one-year-old mother. She is an active member of her church and participates in serving meals to grieving families. Whether camping or on a cruise ship, she likes to travel with her husband.
