Chef for Hire: The Annapolis Series.Part Three (Paperback)

By Jacqueline Varlotta

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This story is a continuation of the Annapolis Series. It follows the Annapolis family as they continue their journey through this life at the hands of fate, the choices they make and the destiny that this life holds for them - as it does for us all. The author loved two of the characters depicted in the first two stories so much, that she gave them their own story - called Chef For Hire - which takes place in Paris France and England. Myra Annapolis has graduated the prestigious and famous culinary institute of Le Cordon Blue in Paris France. Earning a La Grande Diploma in cuisine and Patisserie and a diploma in Wine Management, Myra now works in an exclusive and well known, established restaurant La Pierre De Savoy in the heart of Paris France. Her dreams of being a chef are now a reality as she starts a journey that will lead her toward becoming a famous chef. When her cousin Kaleena marries the king of Mareedikhan, Myra travels to the country of Mareedikhan to attend her cousins...
